Broadbridges Covid-19

Our shops are now open and we welcome all customers into the store but we ask that you follow the social distancing guidelines as set out by the government to ensure the health and safety of our staff and customers.

All customers are asked to following social distancing measurers that we have put in place:

- A limited number of customers will be allowed in store at one time
- When buying school uniform, we ask that only one adult accompanies your child
- We are encouraging our customers to purchase online where you are happy to do so
- We will be operating a queueing system so please allow time for your visit
- We have signage reminding customers of the social distancing requirements
- Screens have been installed at the till points for added protection
- Please pay by debit/credit card where possible

If you have any concerns, please do contact us and we will be happy to assist you.
